

Monica L. Wofford, MBA, CSP

The Contagious LEADER™ who develops
Contagious CONFIDENCE™

Monica Wofford founded her training career and company on the premise that a leader does not have to be born, but can be developed. Since that time she has expanded leadership to include working with employees, customers and even the voices in your head. Monica has led talented employees and teams for more than 19 years and now serves as President of Contagious Companies, a seven division training and consulting firm.

The author of Contagious Leadership, as well as numerous other books and learning tools, Monica has been called “The best trainer ever seen!” Monica’s strategies, techniques, and powerful insights into effective leadership, masterfully transform managers and employees into people who lead better, stay longer, complain less, and produce more.

Though she began her speaking career part time in 1989 with her first key note to 8600 fellow students, Monica has had a role in or coaching or leadership since 1990. She was recently nominated as a Woman of Distinction by the Girl Scouts Citrus Council and even Vice President Dick Cheney has complimented Monica on Contagious Leadership. With an MBA, numerous training certifications, and CORE® Coach certification, Monica’s greatest joy comes from helping others catch their own sense of Contagious Confidence™. She performs this both as a speaker and as CEO of the popular women’s conference series: The Contagious Confidence™ Conferences for Women.

Outside of the office, Monica serves as an adjunct instructor with The University of Phoenix, President of the board of Freedom Ride, President of the Central Florida National Speakers Association Chapter, an amateur polo player, and a dynamic coach for those who struggle with their practice, their lives, or the voices in their head.
